Mrs. Lothrop and Mrs. Mondell will receive informally the children of the C. A. R. Society from 3 to 4:30 o'clock, in the children's room, after the committee meeting.

Capitol Chapter, Children of the American Revolution.—opened its season recently at the home of the president, Mrs. Henry Penno Sawtelle. Addresses were made by Miss Helen Stout, state director; Mrs. Ellis L. Egan, Mrs. Nagle, Miss Gibbs, state director of Delaware, and Mrs. Matthew Trimble, who was elected to honorary membership. Several new members were welcomed into the chapter.

Capitol Hill History Club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. B. C. Nichols, 14 1/2 street southeast. At its previous meeting, at the home of Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. C. D. Glass presented a paper on "Our Financial Relations With Other Countries."

The Washington Simmons Club will meet Friday evening at the home of Miss Evelyn A. Crosswell, 1379 Irving street.

The Maj. William Overton Cliffe Chapter, D. A. R., which meets every second Saturday in the month, was the recent guest of Mrs. Margaret M. Berry, the occasion being also her birthday. Mrs. Alice Colston Salter described a recent visit to the ancestral homes of the Cliffes, built by William Clifton in 1864, and by Sir John Woodbridge in 1882. There was a birthday cake, with pink lighted candles.

Johnson-Powell Mothers' Club.—Mrs. Glen Scott Rafter presided at the meeting Tuesday in Powell School. Due to the competition among children for room representation, a large number of the mothers attended who became new members. The 3-A grade of Powell School, Miss Short, teacher, scoring highest, will receive for the month a banner, the gift of Mrs. Stewart to the club.

Urgent needs of schools were discussed: Lights, screens to insure better ventilation, drinking fountain in yard and enlarged playgrounds for Johnson School; lunchroom facilities, toilet conditions, drinking fountains of approved type, beautifying grounds and a matron for Powell School building. A committee was appointed to wait on the board of education to appeal for shorter sessions in afternoon divisions of Johnson School until the building is properly lighted. Definite steps to better conditions in girls' basement in Powell School were taken. Mesdames Cole, Coker, Randall and Milligan volunteering personal services. Gifts of furniture for this cause were reported.

Mrs. Hanna, chairman, announced that the club would start serving hot cocoa and soups to supplement cold lunches brought by children living at a distance or others who were occasionally compelled to bring lunches, and reported a loan of $50 to purchase initial supplies. The club voted to cut a door at expense of $25 to facilitate this work, the same to be refunded by District committee.

Mrs. Creager, as chairman of program committee, outlined year's topics as follows:

December 22, 1920, "Play and Recreation."
January 25, 1921, "Parents' Responsibility."
February 29, "New Educational Movements."

BAN HIGH HEELS AND LOLLYPOPS, DOCTORS URGE

BOSTON, December 4.—A ban on high heels such as never carried a Puritan or Pilgrim ancestor to church is to be sought from the legislature by the Massachusetts Osteopathic Society. Announcement that the society would introduce a bill to stop the high heel at its source—the manufacturer—was made at its nineteenth annual convention today.

Dr. R. Kendrick Smith of Brookline, who read a paper on "High Heels a Crime," told his associates that the advent of woman suffrage had given the society courage to propose a bill prohibiting the manufacture, sale and wearing of heels more than one and one-half inches in height.

The fad of sucking lollypops also was attacked.

"The lollypop is not a bad piece of physical enjoyment," said Dr. Robert H. Velch of Medford, "whereas a nut for the danger of functional derangement of the stomachs of our school pupils and others by its excessive use."
